

Prosecco & painting art experience

- Fancy getting creative - with a group of friends, perhaps as a celebration - with a glass of fizz to keep you going?
- Have a shared experience, build confidence in your skills and enjoy the process along the way.

The "P&P" experience brings effervescence to a workshop tailor-made for each group. Agree your date and time allowing for maximum flexibility and a truly bespoke experience.

Your art experience will focus on different techniques, paints and processes to fire your imagination and uncover your creativity. Bring along your own favourite image to work from, suggest a theme, or choose from a selection of tried and tested activities that Sarah will provide.

Sarah is an experienced teacher, who has led many workshops in how to create wonderful, magical art work, for children and adults of all abilities. She would like to help you achieve the same.
