

Sketchbook club

- Do you like idea of creating your own personal sketchbook but you're not sure where to start?
- Fancy getting creative - time for you, no distractions?
- Benefit from small class sizes - personalised tuition guaranteed

The Sketchbook Club runs every Friday morning at The Gingerbread Tree Studio. Sign up to all sessions offered for a discount, or just treat it as a 'drop-in' class.

Each session focuses on different themes, techniques and processes using a wide range of art materials. Learn to draw, design and doodle with confidence, and uncover your creativity through some tried and tested processes which will fire your imagination.

The sessions cover a mix of structured learning, individual feedback, group inspiration and time to make bring your ideas to life.

Sarah is an expert at sketchbooks and scrapbooks. An experienced GCSE teacher, she taught GCSE Art for 16 years in West Sussex and has worked as an Exam Moderator for AQA Exam Board. She is passionate about her work and wants to share her skills with you and help you achieve the same.
