

Wednesday morning art class

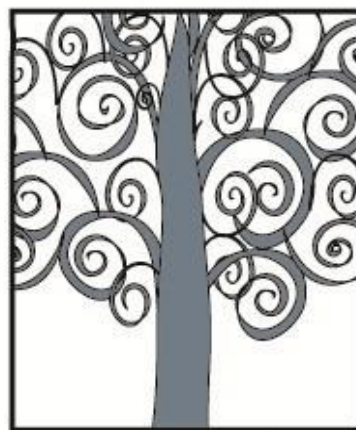

- Do you like the idea of drawing and painting, but you're not sure where to start?
- Fancy getting creative - time for you, no distractions?
- Benefit from a small group size - personalised tuition guaranteed.

These art classes give you time and space to gain confidence with a range of painting and drawing techniques, and uncover your creativity through some tried and tested processes which will fire your imagination.

You will have the chance to work with pencil, pen, water colours, acrylics and inks whilst discovering different ways to work with a variety of media, individually or combined.

Across the sessions you will experience a mix of structured learning, individual feedback, group inspiration and time to bring your art work to life.

Sarah is an experienced teacher, who has led many workshops in how to create wonderful, magical art work, for children and adults of all abilities. She would like to help you achieve the same.
