

GCSE Art Sketchbook Club

- Do you have unfinished pages in your sketchbook?
- Are you behind with your coursework, with exams looming on the horizon?
- Would you benefit from some extra time to get work started...finished?

Then this club will help you to get your back on track, or simply give extra time to finesse your existing work, so you get the grade you deserve. These 2 hour sessions run once a month throughout each academic term and are designed to help and support GCSE Art students with their sketchbooks and portfolios. There is a maximum of 6 spaces for each session so students can genuinely expect to receive individual support each time they attend.

Sarah is an expert at sketchbooks and scrapbooks. An experienced GCSE teacher, she taught GCSE Art for 16 years in West Sussex and has worked as an Exam Moderator for AQA Exam Board. She is passionate about her work and wants to share her skills with you and help you achieve the same.

The sessions cover a mix of structured learning, individual feedback, group inspiration and time to make bring your ideas to life.
